

Jamison Fines Policy

A fine or suspension may be imposed by the Jamison Board of Directors. The person sought to be fined or suspended will have 14 days from the date the fine is enacted to request a hearing before the Fines Committee to appeal the action.

The Fines Committee consists of at least three members appointed by the board who are not officers, directors, employees of the association or a spouse, parent, child, brother, sister of an officer, director, employee or offending person's family. An appeal must be submitted in writing by handing it to a Jamison Board Member or mailing it to Town Shores – Jamison House, 3210 59th Street South Gulfport, Florida 33707. It must be received by the Jamison Board of Directors within the previously noted fourteen days. The fine will still accrue and the suspension(s) will still be in effect during this appeal period. A meeting with the Fine Committee will be scheduled within a seven days of receiving the request for appeal.

The role of the committee is limited to determining whether to confirm or reject the fine or suspension levied by the board. If the committee, by majority vote, does not confirm a proposed fine or suspension, it may not be imposed and any outstanding fines will be cancelled and/or suspension(s) will be ended. The Board will inform the person who requested the appeal on the Fining Committee's decision within seven days following the meeting.
